Discover Rogers County!

Rogers County was named after Clem Rogers, father of Oklahoma's favorite son, Will Rogers. Born in Indian Territory and raised on the Birthplace Ranch in Oologah, the Cherokee Kid (Will) grew up a cowboy, actor, newspaper columnist, a Vaudeville performer and of course the man of many great quotes. But Rogers County is also home to many more famous folks, such as Patti Page, Andy Payne, Lynn Riggs, Stuart Roosa, Clem McSpadden, Gene Autry, Edwin Evers and today's hottest country star-Zach Bryan.

The sixth largest county in the state, with eight communities offering visitors an array of activities, history, Native American Culture and some of the most famous Route 66 icons in United States. Offering forty-six miles of road side attractions, the Mother Road runs from Chelsea to Foyil, to Claremore, to Verdigris and on to Catoosa. Great food, shopping, and family fun can be found along the way.

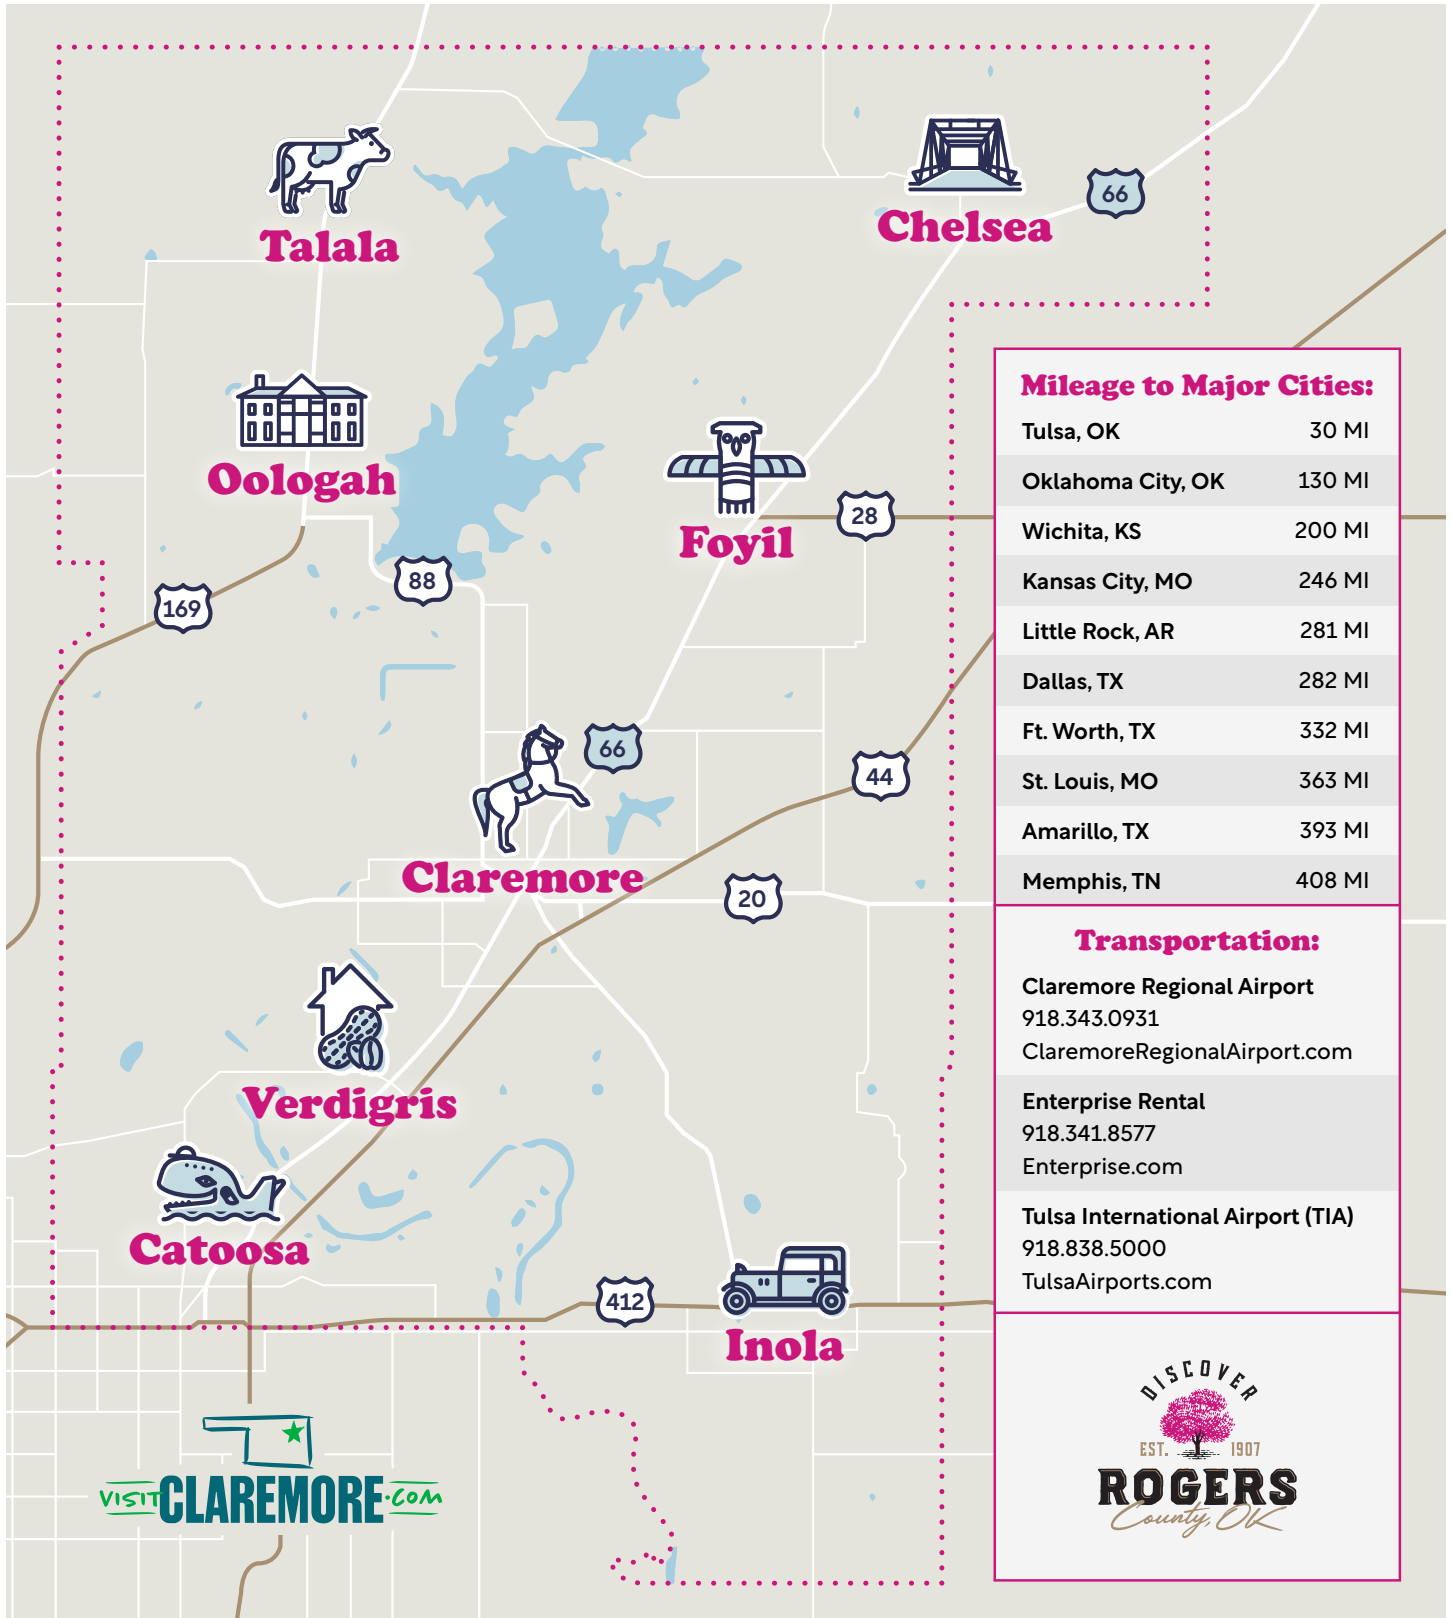

Rogers County is home to great outdoor activities, sure to provide the whole family with fresh air and plenty to do. Oologah Lake offers boating, fishing, swimming, camping and all things outdoors for the perfect family get away. Talala is home of the Steel Barn Event Center, a beautiful venue for your indoor or outdoor events. Inola sets on the McClellan-Kerr Navigation System where visitors can enjoy the education center and hopefully witness a barge going through the lock and dam. The Claremore Mountain Bike Trails and Claremore Lake Park are hidden gems, and Claremore's Heritage Hills Golf Course is a player's dream course. Outdoor lovers will enjoy disc golf at Rogers Point Park in Catoosa, right on the Verdigris River. A 9-hole course, Lone Pine Golf Course, is located in Verdigris and offers all the amenities of the 18-hole courses; great for beginners.

We invite you and your family to experience all of Rogers County!

Agritourism

Rogers County is overflowing with agritourism activities!

Claremore

Shepherd's Cross, a missionary working farm that hosts events year round, such as Sheer to Shawl on Wooly Weekend or the Pumpkin Festival; Swan's Dairy, you can purchase fresh milk and cheese daily; Walke Meat Company, a meat lover's dream; A-Bar Ranch, where they host livestock sales semi-annually; Corem Deo Flower Farm, be sure to pick up a fresh bouquet of flowers daily, and you won't want to miss Lucky R Ranch, where you can hug a Highland Cow!

Oologah

Blakely Family Farms, Creekside Plants & Produce; Birthplace Ranch and Will Rogers Country Centennial Trail

Verdigris

Verdigris is home to hundreds of acres of pecan orchards, including Red Dirt Pecan and the Verdigris River Valley Pecan and Grass Farm.

Catoosa

Catoosa Sunflower Farm, the perfect backdrop for your family pictures. Sunflower season runs from July through September, appointments are required.

Tulsa Port of Catoos

an integral part of the McClellan-Kerr Arkansas River Navigation System, the port is a 2,500-acre shipping and industrial park complex that houses 70 businesses.

Roughly 90 percent of goods that come through the port are agricultural. Take a self-guided driving tour through the port and be sure to visit the Maritime Education Center, even step on retired Tug Boat Charlie.

Inola

Moore's Fish Farm, established in 1962 and family-operated in Inola, Moore's host a fish fry on the third Friday and Saturday of the month, year-round. You can also visit the stock ponds, take some home if you'd like to stock your own.

Explore the City of Catoosa, connecting tourism, history, and culture to business and industry.

Home to Route 66, the Hard Rock Hotel & Casino and the iconic Blue Whale, Catoosa is a popular destination for visitors traveling down the Mother Road. Catoosa's rich history known for both the nostalgic Route 66 and Native American culture, can be experienced through out the city.

Catoosa's must see and do:

The Blue Whale-one of the more unique and recognizable Route 66 attractions, the Blue Whale was created by Hugh Davis. Mr. Davis created the park as a special place where his grandchildren could play and swim. Today, swimming is not permitted but it is a popular destination and photo hotspot. Bring your favorite meal for a picnic and enjoy the giant whale.

The Tulsa Port of Catoosa-the furthest inland port in the United States lies on 2,500 acres and is an integral part of the McClellan-Kerr Arkansas River Navigation System. The Port is home to more than 70 businesses in which roughly 90 percent of goods that come through the Port are agricultural. Fertilizer, soybeans and wheat are among the most shipped products. Take a driving tour, routes provided, and then stop and visit the Maritime Education Center to learn about the Port's history and the economic impact on Oklahoma.

Favorite Annual Events:

Catoosa's LibertyFest celebrates the Fourth of July, but in late June. Held at Rogers Point Park, LibertyFest is four days full of fun! Enjoy the carnival each evening, visit unique vendors and don't miss the Fireworks on the final night.

Lighting of the Blue Whale kicks off the holiday season in Catoosa. See the Route 66 icon decorated in festive Christmas lights starting the Sunday after Thanksgiving and through the end of the year.

Cherokee Art Market, October 12-13, 2024 is held annually at the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino. The market is a great opportunity to collect the newest works from elite Native artists. More than 150 nationally renowned artists, representing tribes from across the United States, gather to compete for prizes and offer their work for sale.

Chelsea

Explore Chelsea, home of Oklahoma's Singing Cowboy Gene Autry

Chelsea was founded in 1881 as an Atlantic and Pacific Railroad stop. The community was incorporated under the law of the Cherokee Nation and was the home of Admiral Jocko Clark, the highest-ranking naval officer of Native American descent. Also, home of another great Cherokee Citizen, Clem McSpadden. A former U.S. Representative of Oklahoma's 2nd Congressional District, and an American Rodeo Announcer and inductee to the Pro Rodeo Hall of Fame, his rodeo career lasted more than 50 years. Clem announced the National Finals Rodeo 27 times, and crossed into Canada to announce the Calgary Stampede and the Canadian Finals Rodeo, both of which he was the first American to announce the events.

You won't want to miss Chelsea's iconic Route 66 attractions, such as the Pryor Creek Bridge. Part of the original Route 66 alignment, this historic 123-foot bridge is the only unaltered bridge left in Oklahoma today. While it is no longer drivable, visitors can walk along this incredible piece of history.

A visit to Chelsea isn't complete without walking under Route 66! The Route 66 Pedestrian Underpass will take you across the highway without dodging traffic. But don't forget to take in the mural and sign your name as you walk across. While you're in town, be sure to drive by the Hogue House. Located on the National Register of Historic Places, the Hogue House was the first Sears & Roebuck home to be shipped west of the Mississippi, and was built in 1912.

Foyil

Foyil, home of the world's largest Totem Pole, a Route 66 icon.

If you are cruising Route 66 you have to stop in Foyil! First stop by Andy Payne Park on the original alignment, have a picnic and stretch your legs by visiting the Route 66 Texaco Filling Station on the same property. Then make your way east on highway 28-A to Totem Pole Park.

You literally can't miss it as you drive closer, it is 90 feet tall and made of red sandstone, steel, wood and concrete. Artist and Veteran, Ed Galloway spent his retirement building a unique park and in 1999, it was added to the National Register of Historic Places. Nearby is the "Fiddle House", located in the gift shop. The "Fiddle House" displays Galloway's hand-crafted fiddles and other inlaid wood artifacts. www.rchs1.org/totem-pole-park

Foyil's hometown hero, Andy Payne, was a Cherokee Citizen from Foyil won the Great Transcontinental Footrace, a 3,400-mile race from Los Angeles to New York City that followed much of the path of then-new Route 66. Upon returning to Oklahoma he paid off the family farm with his winnings and set off to clerk for the Oklahoma Supreme Court.

While in Foyil, stop at Annie's Diner for a good old fashion cheeseburger and fries, or if you are out and about earlier, stop in for their famous omelets or biscuits and gravy...you can't go wrong!

Inola, Where Two Tribal Nations Meet

Located at the southern point of Rogers County, Inola is enriched with Native American Culture from two tribes; the Creek Nation and the Cherokee Nation. A historic marker is placed where the territories for each lie. Boasting as the “Hay Capital of the World” where farmers and ranchers produce and harvest a large supply of high quality of Bluestem Prairie Hay.

This charming community is just twenty minutes from Claremore and is accessible to highways, interstates, railroads and the Verdigris waterway resulting in global manufacturers such as Sofidel Paper Mill, an Italian company; and Enel North America Solar Panel Manufacturing who announced their $2 billion investment in the summer 2023.

Inola's must see and do

Moore's Fish Farm-need to stock your pond or just try the best catfish dinner around? Dinners are the third Friday and Saturday of the month, year-round. You won't be disappointed!

Fuller's Car Museum-Walk through time with this impressive collection of 19 well-preserved vehicles designed between 1917-1953.

McClellan-Kerr Navigation System and Robert F. Hunter Lock and Dam 18 USACE Visitor Center-featuring two stories of interactive displays, 360 experiences and interpretive panels, along with a free picnic area, visitors will be in awe of the history of the navigation system.

International Boundary Marker between the Cherokee and Creek Nations-placed in the 1890's, the marker designates the boundary between the two tribes.

Historic Black Fox Nuclear Site-this historic site sits three miles from downtown Inola and was set to be the home of a $3.4 billion nuclear power plant. But in 1982 the project was canceled after a partial plant meltdown in Pennsylvania.

Experience Inola's annual events

- Hay Days
- Hometown Christmas and Parade
- Hmong New Year Festival

Foodies will enjoy these great local favorites

- Pops & Gigi's Café
- Las Parrillas
- Graham's Bakery and Café
- S & J BBQ

Unique to Inola is the Old Icehouse 33, home and inspiration of the TV series “Reservation Dogs”, serving delicious beverages and live entertainment. But a visit to Inola is not complete unless you stop at Martha's Noodles and Cake Shoppe. Martha's features Amish homemade baked goods, noodles, pies, pastries and more.

Not your average boutique, the 260 Broadway Boutique is sure you will find something to spice up your wardrobe, find that “just right” home décor item or a gift for someone special.

Oologah

Oologah, the Birthplace of Will Rogers

Oologah means "Dark Cloud" in Cherokee, but there is only sunshine on the Birthplace Ranch. Experience a unique glimpse into the life of vaudeville performer, famous actor, Cherokee Cowboy and American humorist Will Rogers (1879-1935) at the Will Rogers Birthplace Ranch, nicknamed "The White House on the Verdigris".

Known as the Cherokee Kid, Will Rogers' family was of strong Cherokee lineage. Rogers' mother and father were Cherokees, and all were proud of their heritage. Will never lived in Oklahoma, as the state was still Indian Territory until 1907.

Recently purchased by the Cherokee Nation, the Will Rogers Birthplace Ranch will undergo structural and integrity improvements, along with renovated amenities and plans of future growth. The ranch is currently closed for these projects until the end of 2024. But check back for updates at <https://visitcherokeemuseum.com>

Love the great outdoors, then you will love Oologah. Home of Oologah Lake where fishing is abundant, boating, water skiing, kayaking, swimming, and camping are some of the most popular activities on this beautiful area. Horse back riding, hiking and walking trails are also a favorite on the Will Rogers Country Centennial Trail. www.recreation.gov

RedBud Marina and Campground offer boat rentals, tubes, skis and all the supplies needed for a great day on the lake. Bring your camper or tents and stay a few days...you won't be disappointed.

The town square is home to great local restaurants, an amazing bronze statue of Will Rogers and his favorite horse, Soap Suds, and the Oologah Historical Museum. As you make your way to the square be sure to stop by the Will Rogers Birthplace Miniature road side attraction. Oologah also has a splash pad and the Free Little Library for the kiddos.

Great dining options include

- The Oar House at RedBud Marina
- Cantina Grill
- Angie's All Day
- Heavenly Dough Pizza

If you need pecans, be sure to stop by Edwin Evers Pecans, grown by world-renowned bass angler, Edwin Evers. Or stop in J & M's Collectibles for that unique gift item. And don't worry if you find yourself wanting to try your luck at fishing while in town, The Tackle Box has you covered.

A town full of pride, residents and visitors alike enjoy some great local events.

Kids Fun in the Sun Fishing Derby with Edwin Evers. Hosted each June, the derby is open to children ages 1 to 12 and all entries receive a free fishing pole and bait.

Oologah Pioneer Day is a family-fun event with kid's games, vendors, food trucks and more! Held each May and kick-off starts with a parade, followed by live music and a street dance.

Boologah, celebrates Halloween and the arrival of Fall. There are plenty of activities, food, costumes all in a safe location for the kids.

Talala, the Gateway to Will Rogers Country

Talala is a rural community rich in agriculture with small-town appeal. Visitors often find local farmers and ranchers gathered at the local grocery store or the large feed mill. Home to several noteworthy residents, Talala is home to Rogers County's first Medal of Honor recipient, Roy W. Harmon and the 2016 GEICO Bassmaster Classic Champion, Edwin Evers. The community got its start as a major railroad shipping hub for cattle. Located near Oologah Lake, Talala connects visitors with great fishing and boating as well as the birthplace of Will Rogers.

How about a lady's retreat? For My Love Craft Retreats, nestled in rural Talala, offers visitors a peaceful, relaxing environment that is perfect for crafting and conversation. With a spacious craft room, full-sized kitchen and weekend spa services, this is a perfect location for a girl's weekend! www.formylovecraftingretreat.com

Home of the Wiganon Space Capsule, which started as an accident, is now one of Oklahoma's most memorable and fun photo ops. In 1959, a cement mixer wrecked, leaving behind a heavy mixer. Over the years it has been painted many times, but in 2011 it was redesigned into a space capsule with the NASA logo, rocket thrusters and shiny aluminum paint.

Rustic, beautiful, elegant and stunning describes the Steel Barn Event Center, perfect for a bride and groom's special day. One of the best rustic-modern wedding venues in Oklahoma, in the heart of Talala. From start to finish, your wedding, reception or banquet is in the hands of experts!

A community favorite, Talala's Fall Festival, kicks off fall with a family fun event! The day starts with a 5k run and bike race, followed by an afternoon of craft vendors, inflatables, classic picnic games, a petting zoo, live music and more!

An American favorite, Independence Day, celebrated with the Talala Community Fireworks and hosted by the First Baptist Church. A great way to celebrate our freedoms!

Fun fact, Talala is home to The Roller 3D, locally owned and operated by a former plumber. The venture started with a love a model ships, and with today's 3D printer technology, this local family's dreams came true and ships are packaged and loaded daily for delivery all over the globe. www.theroller3d.com

Verdigris

Verdigris, the Mother Road Connection between Claremore and Catoosa

Verdigris was originally established as a trading colony in the 1700's with the Osage, Delaware and Cherokee Nations. French traders named the Verdigris River after the French word for the water's green hue. When the town was incorporated in 1980, it adopted the name of this vital waterway, which links to the Tulsa Port of Catoosa at the head of the McClellan-Kerr Arkansas River Navigation System.

Today Verdigris is a vibrant small community focused on family activities, contemporary housing, a golf course, top-notch schools and businesses along Route 66.

A Route 66 road trip is not complete unless you have stopped at The Nut

House, located in the heart of Verdigris. The Nut-House is a full-service deli, with an extensive gift shop, fresh fudge and of course, nuts. It is a tourist's dream stop with plenty of fun souvenirs to take home. Inside, you will find Hot Mama's Deli where daily specials, including dessert, are always a local favorite. Plenty of seating and a great rest stop for any size family.

Stretch your legs at Lone Pine Golf Course, a 9-hole course primarily consisting of par-3 holes. The course offers a complete set of golf practice facilities including a driving range, along with a large putting/chipping green.

Just a little off of Route 66, sets Rustic Creek, a locally owned and operated event venue perfect for weddings and special events. www.therusticcreek.com

Another local favorite wedding spot is The Hidden Porch, hosting baby showers, weddings, receptions and more. www.hiddenporchweddings.com

Hungry for something different? Try The Chat Room in Verdigris, a great mix of Sushi, Pho and Thai dishes in a family dining atmosphere.

Get a good night's rest at the Microtel Inn & Suites by Wyndham, located on the northern edge of Verdigris. www.wyndhamhotels.com/microtel

Welcome To Claremore!

Located in the heart of the Cherokee Nation, with a rich history steeped in Native American culture, famous cowboys, singers, playwrights, and a romantic connection to Route 66, Claremore continues to provide fascinating experiences for residents and visitors alike.

A modern community home to an accredited four-year university, global manufacturing and diverse experiences, Claremore offers a uniquely Oklahoma lifestyle with wide-open spaces, beautiful scenery and a deep love and appreciation for community. In the spirit of our own storytellers Will Rogers and Lynn Riggs, who shared our humor with the world and made everyone fall in love with Oklahoma, we remain proud of our roots and continued transformation.

Home to one of Oklahoma's famous events, the Will Rogers Stampede Rodeo held every Memorial Day Weekend, has put Claremore on the Rodeo map. The Stampede is the Pro Rodeo Cowboy Association's 6X Winner of Small Rodeo of the Year, and the 2X nominee of Medium Rodeo of the Year. Contestants and spectators enjoy the thrill of the performances and come from all over the globe to experience this time-honored tradition.

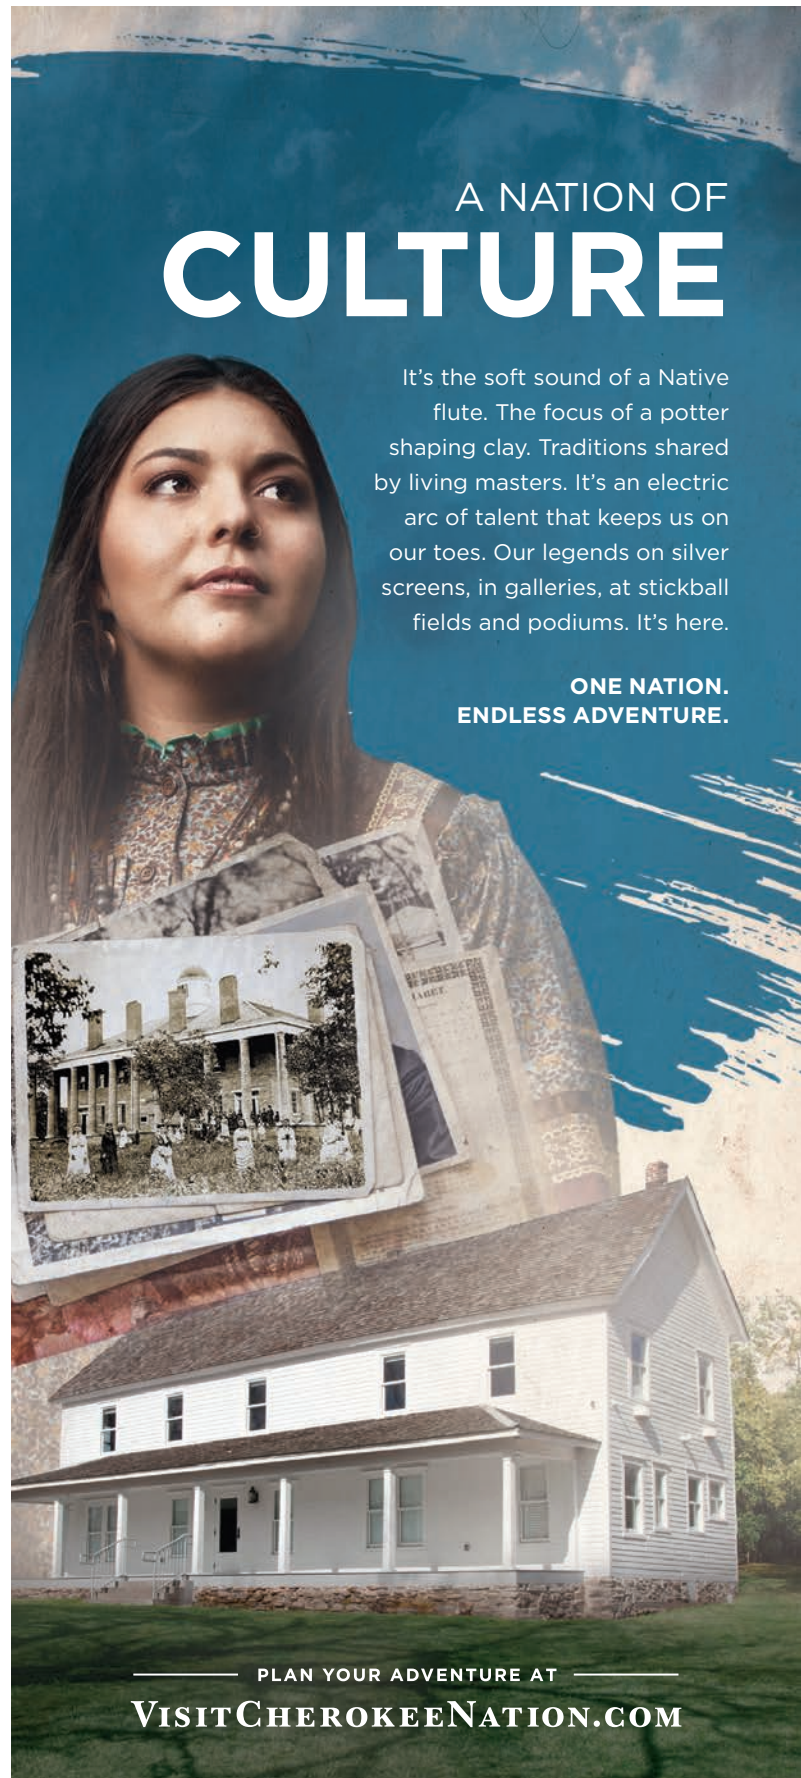

In June of 2024 we welcome the 50th Anniversary of the Mid-America Ford & Shelby Nationals to Claremore! Experience these cars and trucks, and the powerful Shelby Mustangs as they roll into town and enjoy being part of this amazing event.

We invite you to discover Claremore's small-town charm and hospitality you will adore when you visit our many attractions, local shops and eateries, as well as our world class museums.

A NATION OF CULTURE

It's the soft sound of a Native flute. The focus of a potter shaping clay. Traditions shared by living masters. It's an electric arc of talent that keeps us on our toes. Our legends on silver screens, in galleries, at stickball fields and podiums. It's here.
